SEC. 9. The salaries and allowances herein provided for shall be paid by the treasurer of said county, upon warrant as required by law, to the officers and assistants in monthly installments: Provided, that the allowances may be paid in warrants of irregular size, according to the needs of the various officers, but shall never exceed for the year the amounts herein provided.

SEC. 10. The officers hereinbefore required to turn over to the Treasurer of Wayne County moneys coming into their hands shall make settlement with said treasurer on the last day of each and every month; the county commissioners may at any time require said officers or any of them to exhibit to them all books and accounts, showing all moneys received and turned over to the treasurer under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 11. Any officer or clerk or assistant herein mentioned who shall willfully fail or refuse to collect the full fee, commission, or emolument of any kind belonging to his office shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 12. That the board of county commissioners of Wayne County, at a meeting to be held on the first Monday in December, one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and annually thereafter, may appoint some suitable person to audit and approve monthly the reports of said fees, commissions, profits, and emoluments made by said county officers, and it shall be his duty to act as an accountant for the county in settling with the county treasurer and sheriff; to supervise, scrutinize, and examine at least once in every calendar month all books, accounts, receipts, and vouchers and other records of all the officers of said county which show fees and commissions collected and received by them; to examine at least once a year the dockets of all justices of the peace of said county; and he is hereby authorized to administer oaths on verification of claims which may be filed against the county, and to open a set of account books in which shall be shown the total monthly receipts of fees and commissions of all the officers of said county, in an expert and intelligent manner, assigning distinct and separate accounts for each and every of said officers, which books shall be permanently kept as the records of his office and always open to public inspection. He shall likewise visit at least once in every calendar month the county jail and examine the same, also the books and accounts kept by the jailer. It shall likewise be his duty to audit all bills and claims presented to the board of commissioners of said county for payment, which bills and claims shall first be verified on oath by the persons to whom they are due.

SEC. 13. That the board of county commissioners of said county are authorized to pay such compensation, not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per month, to the person auditing said accounts and performing the duties of said auditor as in their judgment shall be right and proper; the said auditor shall execute a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the board of commis-
